CRITERIA FOR AN OIRCA ACTIVE MEMBER TO BECOME A BRANCH MEMBER

OIRCA Active Members that establish or operate branch offices are required to maintain a Branch Membership for each branch location. Applicants for Active Membership that operate one or more branch offices will also be required to maintain a Branch Membership for each branch location upon acceptance into membership.

To be eligible for Branch Membership, the applicant must be an Active Member in good standing with the Association.

1. Applicants must maintain an established place of business in the Province of Ontario from which it conducts roofing and related sheet metal operations in the ICI sector. Each such location, other than the applicant's principal office, shall be deemed a "Satellite Office."

2. A separate Branch Membership application must be submitted for each Satellite Office. Upon approval, annual Branch Membership dues of $2,046.00 plus applicable HST ($2,311.98) shall be payable for each Satellite Office.

3. A separate Branch Membership shall be maintained for each Satellite Office operated by an Active Member.

4. Branch Membership shall automatically terminate upon the permanent closure of the applicable Satellite Office.

5. A Branch Member may operate under a business name different from that of the Active Member, provided the alternate business name is used in conjunction with the Active Member's registered business name and complies with all applicable legal and registration requirements.
